La Repubblica (Italy)

The Art History series represents a new, modern, up-to-date and captivating tool that finally provides a complete overview of the history of western art, from prehistoric times to the third millennium, in lively, direct language. The reader constantly discovers new marvels and learns how to position the great masterpieces in the "right" place, namely in the context of artists, styles and history. A wide-ranging approach that starts with the most ancient civilizations of the Mediterranean and expands outward to cover the entire Western Hemisphere, also reaching America. A voyage through eras, masters, the most beautiful works conceived by man, a legacy that is also a sign of love and intelligence, creativity and fantasy. Volume after volume, the intriguing tale of artistic expression grows and unfolds, offering an image of entire societies but also of individuals, in case upon case of unique historical testimony and creative power. The structure in chapters and sections, with analysis of masterpieces, critical interpretations and in-depth boxes and "windows", engages the reader in "interactive" use of the volumes, permitting choice of personal, original paths.

Average print run for each title sold in combined sale in Italy:
130.000 copies at 12,90 €

Over 18000 pages 12000 images about 100 authors: impressive numbers for a series planned and produced with an innovative approach, narrating art throughout the millennia as a continuous, thrilling adventure

The series offers absolutely complete information and an unprecedented wealth of fine illustrations
